Italian Battle Front is Only Theatre Where Hard Fighting Is taking Place at Present

Even There the Intensity of Operations Has Lessened—On British Front in France Only Manoeuvres by Raiding Parties Have Occurred—French Artillery Is Active—Russians In Eastern Theatre Are More Active.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, May 31.—The battle front from Gorizia southward toward the head of the Gulf of Trieste remains the only theatre where for the moment hard fighting is in progress. Even here, however, the intensity which characterized the operations last week is lacking.

Between Jamiano and the head of the Gulf of Trieste the Italians have again cut into the Austrian line and occupied positions west of the village of Medeazza, thereby bringing their right wing closer toward Duino and the railway line leading toward Trieste. The Austrian war office reports the repulse of Italian attacks near Jamiano, while a similar claim is made by Rome for the Italians with regard to Austrian attacks to the north on the Julian front.

On the front in France where Field Marshal Haig's forces are facing the Germans, the operations by neither side have risen above minor attacks for several days, consisting mainly of manoeuvres by small raiding parties and artillery duels of a moderate degree of strength.

Wednesday also passed without infantry engagements between the French and Germans, although their respective guns took part in spirited artillery duels to the south of St. Quentin and in Champagne.

Russians More Active.

The Russians and Austrians in the eastern theatre are fighting in more lively fashion than has been the case for several months. This is particularly true in East Galicia, where several days ago the Russians began an offensive. As yet the Petrograd war office has made no comment on the situation as it now exists in this region, nor has the Austrian official communication given any idea as to the extent of the hostilities or an intimation of the exact zone where the fighting is going on. The anticipated re-commencement of hostilities by the Russians and Roumanians in Roumania has not yet materialized.

DUNCAN HOLDS FINE MEETING AT N. EDMONTON

East End Candidate In Good Fighting Trim and Scores The Opposition.

After speaking at three meetings the Liberal candidate for East Edmonton Fred Duncan, delivered the speech of his campaign in the North Edmonton Presbyterian church. Wed evening he was applauded many times and won the confidence of everyone present.

Regarding the factory act Mr. Duncan said: "If we had a little more such legislation the social reform problem would solve itself. Give a man a dollar when he earns a dollar and give a woman a dollar when she earns a dollar, and you will solve the social problems of today."

He pleaded with the voters not to be backward in spending a few more cents for an article made in Edmonton because the employer is forced by the government to adhere to the rulings of the factors.

"I would like you to consider this: if the leader of the opposition I have been able to find only one direct statement of what he will do, he is placed in power. Do you think it is a good time to make a change when the leader of the opposition makes only one promise?" asked the speaker.

Not arty Hidebound.

"If you think your interests can be taken after by one of the 'common herd,' then vote for Duncan. I am not party hidebound, and don't intend to be. I don't intend to take the direction of the party, which when selected, the interests I shall consider are those of East Edmonton above all. If you think I am not representing the interests of East Edmonton you say so. You will get a good thing, and can come to me with you working clothes on, without your plug hats."

Mr. Duncan drew the audience's attention to the opposition the Conservatives put up in the house to defeat the direct legislation act. "They told you that it would put too much power in the hands of the people. Those who said that should have lived one thousand years ago, and then they would have been behind the times," he said.

"I have been told that there is a story going around that a vote for Duncan is a vote for Germany. There are people traveling through this constituency who are in the Biological ages, would have been known their relatives of Ananias. They are spreading these stories to catch the votes, knowing them to be lies."

Only British Subjects Vote

Referring to the statements of his opponent regarding the voting rights, he pointed out that only British subjects should be allowed to vote. "In Canada, there are any Germans running around East Edmonton you have that wonderful Conservative government at Ottawa to blame for that," he said.

"Ladies remember this, by your votes you are going to say whether you favor the kind of protection legislation that has been passed by the Sir Frank Scott government or not. By your votes is the only way you can answer this question. Turning out the government," he argued, "gives the present opposition the perfect right to make a right-about-face on all the questions dealt with by the Scott government."

Major Henry answered the charge of the Conservatives regarding the disfranchising of the soldiers. "The soldier was not in the power of the provincial government, he said. The soldiers will elect two representatives—the franchise and will have two representatives in the house besides them."

Mrs. R. H. Knell and Dr. J. E. Wilson also spoke.

CONSIDER SHIPS LOST

LONDON, May 30.—A Vienna dispatch forwarded from Amsterdam says that at the annual meeting yesterday of the American Lloyd Shipping company it was stated that the company's losses in 1916 were more than $20,000,000. The figure already has been exceeded in the present year. The directors believe the company's ships interned in America must be considered lost.

WHEAT CUTTING STARTS

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 30.—The wheat harvest in Oklahoma began yesterday in Carter county. Near Arnett, 13 soldier members started cutting a 500-acre field, which, it is estimated, will yield twenty bushels to the acre. Oklahoma's wheat crop this year will run between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000 bushels—practically a normal crop according to the state department of agriculture.

Official Reports

LONDON, May 30.—There is nothing of especial interest to report," says tonight's official communication from the war office.

BERLIN, May 30.—The German war office statement tonight says there is nothing of importance to report.

PARIS, May 30.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads:

"Our artillery has continued very active during the day in the region south of St. Quentin and in Champagne. The energetic reply of our batteries brought to an end a somewhat spirited bombardment of our trenches at Mout Haut and Casque.

TWO EDMONTON MEN REPORTED TO BE KILLED

Ptes. J. D. McNulty and William Peacock Have Lost Lives In Recent Fighting.

Pte. J. D. McNulty (No. 1251128), 1023 111th street, Edmonton, is reported to have been killed in action. Mrs. Elizabeth Purvis, his next of kin of that address, received the message. Pte. Peacock leaves a widowed mother in England. Before joining the overseas forces he was employed in the Swift Canadian Company's packing plant.

Pte. F. Short (No. 9242 93rd street), is reported in the casualty lists as having been wounded.

The only other Alberta name on this morning's list is that of Pte. E. Bryd, of Innisfail, who was previously reported missing and is now presumed to have died.

EXPECTED SOLDIERS DID NOT ARRIVE ON TRAIN FROM SOUTH

Edmonton Boys All Stayed Over Somewhere—Welcome Party Disappointed.

A number of returned soldiers were expected to arrive by the train from the south last night and a committee from the Veterans' club, with several automobiles which had been offered by their owners went to the station to meet them. But the trip was made to no avail for not a single returned man was on the train. The Edmonton boys had all, for one reason or another, stopped at Calgary and other intermediate points. Some of them will doubtless be on hand to-day.

BRITISH PLANE FLIES WITH FIVE MEN FROM LONDON TO ROME

MONTEVIDEO, May 30.—Anti-conscription meetings continue to be held in Montreal and other places in the province of Quebec. Montreal was well represented at a meeting held tonight in the Champs d' Mars, but interest in the Champs d' Mars, but interest in the speeches was not overwhelming. Speeches were made in English, French Russian and other languages. Arguments set forth in recent anti-conscriptionist gatherings were again set forth, and were extended to include the Socialistic attitude against war.

E. N. Page, who spoke in French, denounced Recorder Semple for regarding men charged with creating a disturbance as demoralizing the provincial government that he was removed from his office. Mr. Page also claimed that French-Canadian policemen should refuse to interfere with the compatriots when violence was resorted to. Paul Lafontaine dealt with the contemplated institution of conscription of considerable length and criticized the leaders of the two political parties in connection with the issue.

LAVERGNE NOT ASHAMED OF HIS ACTIONS

Says His Opinions Do Not Concern Sir Edward Kemp Any More.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

MONTREAL, May 30.—Col. Armand Lavergne, the Quebec Nationalist, after being shown today the report of last night's meeting of the Daughters of the Empire and the resolution that he should be dismissed from the militia, said, according to a despatch from Quebec:

"In virtue of paragraph 235 the minister of militia has authority to wipe off the militia any officer for bad conduct. As an officer I do not fear that reproach."

"Now regards my political opinions, they do not concern me. Sir Edward Kemp, unless, maybe, he was glad to make use of them in 1911 to regain power."

"I have never worn my uniform under the beginning of the war unless under orders from my superiors. The former minister, Landry, asked me to send the senate for the construction of parallel correspondence between General Landry and myself. I do not believe I am authorized, as a militiaman, to make any statement on that subject until said correspondence has been made public."

AUTOMATIC PHONES CARRY ON BUSINESS

But Over 150 Government Telephone Employees Are on Strike

In The Province.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

CALGARY, Alta., May 30.—Dominion Minister of Labour Harmet Miller tonight said that the system will be only slightly affected by the strike of the telephone employees. All employees south of Red Deer are out, but the automatic telephone system in Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat can be disturbed only when repairs are needed.

The only other Alberta name on this morning's list is that of Pte. E. Bryd, of Innisfail, who was previously reported missing and is now presumed to have died.

Mr. Oliver moved adjournment in order to discuss a matter of urgent public importance.

The removal of tracess on the G.T.P. west of Edmonton.

Mr. Oliver said he had received a telegram from the Jasper Park Collieries, and the other from the secretary of the town of Edison. Mr. Oliver said that the people were entitled to know why the government had decided to disturb the coal miners.

Mr. Oliver said that two engineers of the railway department had been sent to Edmonton to make a plan for the serving of the community and industries likely to be affected by the G.T.P. rails.

R. B. Bennett supported the contentions of the minister with Hon. G. P. Graham and Hon. William Pugsley.

Mr. Pugsley criticized the action of the government.

Wilson Has No Fear of Part U.S. Will Play

America Again Has Opportunity To Show World Born To Serve Mankind.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—President Wilson, speaking at Arlington cemetery, declared today that the time had come for action by this nation and that he had no fear of the part America would play in the great world war.

"In the Providence of God," he said, "America once more has an opportunity to show the world that she was born to serve mankind."

WANT CONSCRIPTION

TORONTO, May 30.—Methodist minister and laymen of the east and central Toronto district endorsed the selective form of conscription at the district meeting today.

Hon. Frank Cochrane: "I am more surprised at the extravagant statements made by the honorable member for Edmonton. He seems to know more about what rails are required and what rails should go forward for use at the front.

Mr. Oliver: "There is all the

DAMAGE SUITS REDUCE PROFITS

Street Railway Surplus on Operations Largely Cut Down in April

Passengers carried on the street railway during April totalled $79,848 against $96,592 the previous month. There was a surplus on operation of $2,433.56 in comparison with $1,156.46 last month, but the drop may be accounted for by the fact that damage claims amounting to $5,386.35 were paid in April.

There was a total revenue of $42,016.04 and a deficit, including capital charges and depreciation of $15,636.17.

District Court

Rex versus Coleman—The judgment in this case has been given by Judge H. C. Taylor, he having ruled that the son of one who ran away from her home with John Coleman was a neglected child, being incapable both in the meaning of the Child's Protection Act of Alberta and that John Coleman was guilty of an act producing, promoting, and contributing to the same. This appeal aimed to set aside conviction made by Magistrate E. F. Murphy, acting as commissioner of the juvenile court. G. E. Winkler was for plaintiff and E. B. Cogswell for the crown.

Few Drops When Corns Hurt, Pain Stops! Corns Lift Out

Don't let corns ache twice! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers—Here's magic! Women! Keep it on dresser!

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without any pain.

This drug is called freezezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezezone, which will cost but a trifling sum, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops upon a tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will lift off with the fingers.

Freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels them without any irritation. Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards.

One drop of freezezone on your dressings and apply a few drops whenever a corn begins aching. Pain stops, corn goes!

Genuine freezezone is sold in little bottles packed in a round, wooden case.

Mr. Bennett explained that when the request for rails came, the matter was placed in the hands of skilled engineers, who were to advise where the rails could be taken up with the least disturbance of traffic. Their advice was taken. Rails were being taken from the Canadian Northern rail line to replace those taken from the Grand Trunk Pacific and a joint section west of Edmonton would be maintained.

Surely they know better at the front than they want than Mr. Pugsley, he said. The government sent the kind of rails asked for. Surely he was not going to make a little political capital out of a national necessity. Not a single pound of munitions was being carried over this section of line about which Mr. Oliver complained, but the through traffic on that road would not be disturbed.

Sick of Being Challenged

Hon. George P. Graham said he was feeling heartily sick of having their law continually violated every time some one on the opposition side got to his feet. Hon. Mr. Oliver, who had lost a son, was the last man who should be treated this way. Mr. Graham said he would not oppose the proposal if the rails were necessary, as he realized that much of the success at the front depended on having the necessary supplies. It had to be moved by railroads. There was a suspicion that the government had never tried to make a success of the Grand Trunk Pacific. The government had not certified the line as being of sufficient quality as specified in clause 39 of the agreement between the company and the city, the information would be forwarded as soon as secured.

Provision of Armament

Under clause 39 of the agreement between the city and the Power Co., the company on or before January 1, 1917 has to proceed with the work necessary for the carrying out of its undertakings, including a railway from Edmonton or near the city to the site of the power development.

Also under the agreement the company during the first 20 months following its coming into force, has to spend approximately the sum of $1,500,000 in this work, and during the next two years approximately $2,000,000.

Also, at the request of the city the company has to render a certificate statement of the amount expended at the end of each of the stated periods.

Women Electors of City Hear Candidates of Both Parties At Big Meetings Yesterday

After Addresses By All Candidates Were Made, Women Showered Candidates With Queries To Answer—A. F. Ewing Has Rather Difficult Time Answering Some Pointed Questions.

Political electricity is the newest element to make its appearance in the election campaign. This factor was brought into the local constituency with much vigor by the hitherto unusual features of the same at a meeting of the Women's Civic club yesterday afternoon when three or four hundred women gathered to hear all sides of the issue political. All the candidates in the three constituencies of the city, with the exception of R. B. Douglas, were brought together at the invitation of the club and each got fifteen minutes of time, in addition to an interrogative period.

Had Busy Time.

The electrical element rose to the surface with the opening of this interrogative opportunity to the meeting. Query slips were sent up to the platform so fast when the chances of all the candidates, particularly Mayor Henry, had come, that they were kept busy in an attempt to meet all requests. The applause attendant upon this rally of the rival candidates took on a definite resemblance to a straight party vote and those who held that the new woman is not conversant with political issues should witness the mounting color in the crowd and the lightning of the eye through the assembly as it mounted higher and higher, though it was a feeling never allowed to get out of bounds. Speaking of "surcharges of electricity" it was not hard at this meeting to see the surcharges actually at work.

Vote of Thanks.

Mrs. McLaughlin, president of the Civic club, was in the chair and she was ably assisted by Mrs. Clarke on the platform. At the close of the meeting Mrs. McClung moved a hearty vote of thanks to the speaking candidates, the meeting endorsing the resolution with right good will. It was explained to the meeting by Mrs. Clyde that R. B. Douglas, Liberal candidate for South Edmonton, though an error been informed that the meeting was one day later and was accordingly out of the city during the afternoon.

H. H. Crawford.

H. H. Crawford, conservative candidate, followed Joseph A. Clarke on the platform and accepted the interest shown in the campaign as an indication that the electors were not satisfied with the government and wanted a change. To meet this feeling the government by "selection ball" legislation had sought to overshadow their past record in the minds of the people. The provincial debt was over $30,000,000 in addition to railway guarantees, and Alberta had the largest contingent in Canada. This he vented after obtaining "inside information." The election he said, was that the government had in mind heavier systems of taxation and wanted to have the people's mandate before trying it on. After slating the premier, attorney general and minister of agriculture for extravagance in travelling expenses Mr. Crawford took the credit of prohibiting legislation for liquor away from the government by stating that this plank had been inserted in the Conservative platform many years ago.

Defended Factory Act.

A. F. Ewing defended the factory act against the allegations of J. A. Clarke that girls would not be protected against manipulative employers. "Fifteen minutes is not too short a time to deal with the shortcomings of the Sifton government," he went on, "a government which is the most extravagant in Canada. He condemned the railway policy, the system proposed for soldier representation and that reform in the civil service was wanted. The major portion of his time was taken up in reference to the charges made in the legislature by Dr. Stanley against the attorney general, charges which he read to the audience. "I am not discussing whether these charges were correct or not, but why no investigation was granted when these charges were made specific." Mr. Ewing also raised the question of the alleged shortage of $34,000 from railway bond sales, stating that the charges had not fallen down as the government candidates declared.

Maynor Henry.

Maynor Henry was given a splendid reception and stated amidst applause: "It is not false as was charged by Dr. Clarke, that I went to the legislature and opposed the granting of equal suffrage, and you know it is false." He reminded that in 1913, mayor, he was one to endorse women's suffrage in the city by act of council, Edmonton being one of the first cities in Canada to act in this regard. It was also false that he had made a deal with the newspapers for tax sale advertising to secure support in the campaign. In the campaign it was not a question of the personal worth of Mr. Ewing or himself but a question of what political policies were best for the country and he showed that the Liberal legislation has been the most beneficial for the people, and that the lives and interests of the people had been more regarded than the mere spending of money. He answered Mr. Ewing as to the financial condition of the province. "Mr. Crawford was almost right when he

Absolute Fairness.

In answer to queries Mayor Henry said that he would promise absolute fairness in regard to the use of the voter lists for the election. This was concerned. The theatre tax was never termed a war tax, though it was applied to meet expenses growing out of the war. It brought in revenue of $59,588, while the cost of patriotic work in the province has cost $391,000. Patriotic work had been carried on to a considerable extent. Alberta sent the first contribution from the provinces to Britain this year, amounting to $279,000. (Applause.)

Another Question.

One lady asked Mr. Ewing why, if specific charges were made in the legislature, and a royal commission was denied by the government, the opposition did not appeal to the Lieutenant governor, as was done in Manitoba? He admitted that that had been done in the eastern province, but said the step was really unconstitutional, and was only to be taken under the circumstances. He said that the opposition would not have been justified in going to the Lieutenant governor.

Mr. Crawford was asked as to the extent and privileges of free railway passes, and to what extent the premier shared in this concession. He said the cabinet members, like federal members, were given passes over all Canadian railway lines, and that ordinary members of the legislature were granted passes over all the lines in the province.

What the Advance Man says.

"THE TRUTHFUL LIAR" A PANTAGES FEATURE

One of the best features of the current vaudeville bill at the Pantages theatre is Leila Shaw and company. Miss Shaw is seen as the actress, a woman, who attempts to get the governor to pardon her client of his accused of murder, and who is to be hanged in the morning. This man is charged with killing his wife, the governor demands that no man kills a woman to save his honor and Leila's family's good name, that it is always the other way about. The lawyer and his wife put up a job, the lawyer's ex-wife, who has been to jail room after he is locked the door, tries to blackmail him, and infuriates him to the point where he would have killed her if the police had not contained their bullet. This is the outcome of the trick. The governor promises a pardon for the accused man, who turns out to be the brother of the lawyer's wife. Miss Shaw makes a splendid vampire. Harry Manner as the governor and Allen Lieber as the lawyer are both good, older leading men. The comic side "Miss Hamlet" with Pauline Barri, one of the most beautiful blondes, who has ever been seen on a local stage in the name of art. Swain's cats and rats, Howard, Kibell and Herbert, continue, concluding with a boxing match between two cats: Kibell and Nash, a pair of singers who dress their act extraordinarily well, and Howard, Kibell and Herbert, who sing well.

Photoplays

Publity men tell of current attractions on the screen in Local Picture Houses

ASKY GENIUS CONTRIBUTED TO SUCCESS OF "JOAN THE WOMAN"

"Joan the Woman" is a success. In Jan. 1911 motion picture theatres throughout the United States this phrase is read lightly by the thousands who enjoy photoplay entertainment. For three years this has been my picture parlance, but I have some notable productions and the form of introducing some popular titles. In the Strand Theatre, New York, not numberless of other big houses, in other cities, the same title "Lasky" is identified with an appreciable per cent of our entertainment offered.

Now, for the first time, the phrase is used prominently with a motion picture production of more than the ordinary length and decidedly more than the ordinary interest and achievement. In the Strand Theatre, New York, there were huge audiences twice daily for the first few weeks since the production, "Joan the Woman," they have read "Jesus Lasky" results. Geraldine Farrar in Cecil B. DeMille's "The Valentine Girl."

Although his name is as well known, probably, as any other name in the United States by reason of the thousands of motion pictures on which he has been featured during the past few years, Mr. Lasky as a personality is unknown. The word "Lasky" has become something of a trade-mark to mean something important.

But those who wish to will find Jesse Lasky, vice-president of the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, a very real person, a very great deal younger than he is believed to be, and a decided real, notwithstanding. He has an office that is splendidly furnished in modern style, equipped with various kinds of furniture, and the telephone and telephones are likely to a visitor will not get a chance to stay to talk longer than necessary, as the whole atmosphere of the office is one telling the fact that Jesse L. Lasky is a very busy man indeed.

LOUIS CHEVROLET CAPTURED 250 MILE INTERNATIONAL SWEEPSTAKE

Called Distance at Average Speed of a Little Better Than 103 Miles Per Hour—Gaston Chevrolet, Winner's Brother, Was Only Few Seconds Behind—De Palma Had Engine Trouble.

CINCINNATI, May 30.—Louis Velt, travelling at an average of slightly better than 102 miles per hour, captured the 250 mile international sweepstakes automobile race at Shreveville Speedway today, was only a few seconds in front of his brother, Gaston Chevrolet. Ira was less than a sixteenth of a second behind the second man, but the rest of the field was well out.

De Palma looked like a contender for more than half a century when he allowed Louis to set the pace while he followed a close second. However, soon after passing the 150 mile mark, De Palma developed engine trouble, and was forced out of it. Earl Cooper likewise had engine trouble with him throughout, but managed to continue in the race and finished seventh. Tom Milton who had been hanging within a mile or two of the leaders during the entire race, came out strong toward the end and captured fourth position. Otto Henning was fifth and Eddie Herne sixth. Garner Oldfield finished eighth, Ralph Mulford ninth. A. P. Patterson tenth and Joe Thomas, eleventh. Chevrolet's time was 2 hours, 26 minutes and 47 seconds.

Was Anaemic

For Over a Year.

Anæmia, or blood turning to water is caused by the heart becoming deranged, and if the heart become weakened it cannot pump the blood it should. As a result the blood becomes impure, and as it loses its nourishing qualities, the body becomes thin and weak, and the bloodless. There is a weakness, tiredness and loss of weight.

When those suffering from thin or watery blood start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pill, they can see a change from the outset.

Every dose introduces into the blood those vital elements necessary to make the blood strong. The pale cheeks take on the rosy hue of health, the weight increases and the whole being thrills with a new life.

THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1917.

A certificate of British citizenship is not "a scrap of paper."

Where do the three Opposition candidates in Edmonton stand on the question of disfranchising naturalized Canadian citizens?

So far in the course of the campaign three unwritten "planks" appear to have emerged as part of the Opposition "platform":

1.—The exclusion from the public platform of all women holding Liberal opinions.

2.—The incitement of racial feeling to the end of frightening naturalized citizens away from the polls.

3.—The disfranchisement of the soldiers and nurses from eleven Alberta constituencies, and the refusal to allow the remainder to select candidates or elect any representatives to the Legislature.

The question having been raised to whom belongs credit for "furthering" the idea of legislation to establish the property rights of married women in Alberta, it is due to note that in 1908 Mr. W. F. Puffer, member of the Legislature for Lacombe, submitted a resolution regarding more equal rights for married women in respect to the holding of property and the right of dower. This appears to have been the beginning of what has come to be known as "women's legislation" in Alberta, and throughout the intervening years Mr. Puffer has been a steadfast and persistent spokesman for the legal recognition of women's rights. Now that these rights have been so far established, and confirmed by the extension of the franchise to the women, it is due to him that he gets credit for his efforts on behalf of the women when their cause was new and when there were no votes in sight for championing it.

In the memorable year 1914 Alderman R. B. Douglas was one of the small minority in the council of this city who stood for the enforcement of law, the suppression of vice, the protection of the citizens, the stoppage of extravagance and plunder, and the administration of civic affairs on a basis of decency and justice and for the promotion of public interests. His reward was the reward that comes to every man who dares to stand for such ideas against a tyrannous and discredited administration, and he was subjected to all the slander and abuse conceivable to the spokesmen and the press of the most despicable political machine that ever debased the morals and squandered the substance of a western city. If this Province is to be well governed it is just as essential that the principles and ideals for which Alderman Douglas stood and suffered in 1914 shall prevail in the political life of the province as it was necessary that they be introduced into the political life of the city before good city government could be attained. Those principles and ideals will govern and control the political life of the Province just in proportion as men who stand for them are elected to seats in the provincial Legislature; and just so surely as men who stand for these things are rejected at the polls just so surely is it useless to expect wholesome conditions to prevail in Provincial politics or good government to be possible. On the stand that he took for honest, efficient and credible city government—at a time when to take that stand meant something—Alderman Douglas is entitled to appeal for the support of the residents of the Strathcona riding who want these to be the governing ideals in Provincial affairs and who approve the progressive legislation and policy the Sifton Government has adopted in the past and will continue if returned to power.

When now are all those skeptical critics of woman suffrage who used to tell us that the women would not take any hand in politics if they were given the right to vote?

Mr. Michener says one issue in the election is the question of representation for the soldiers overseas. If he is anxious to make that an issue his opponents can have no possible objection so long as the distinction is defined in accord with the facts. Mr. Michener's proposal is that the soldiers and nurses from eleven constituencies in the Province should not be allowed to vote at all, and that the remainder should be allowed to vote for civilian candidates but not to have any representatives in the Legislature. The Government's arrangement is that every soldier and every nurse overseas shall have a vote, and that they shall also be allowed to use their votes to elect two members who will represent their views and interests in the Legislature.

The Dominion Immigration office at Edmonton announces that last month more people passed through the local office than during any preceding month since his appointment five years ago. Practically all the new-comers were bound for the Peace River country, and other favored districts in the great Northland. The cause of this stampede into the great hinterland is no secret. Railway construction there has opened up to profitable settlement vast areas of fertile land which has hitherto been far removed from markets and shipping facilities. The influx of settlers, and the business development they are causing and will cause, are results of the policy of the Provincial Government of inducing and aiding the construction of railways by guaranteeing the bonds of companies desiring to build. What has Mr. Michener to offer as means of keeping the construction going on?

By the Patriotic Tax Act passed at the recent session of the Legislature every municipality, urban and rural, and every local improvement district in the Province is empowered to raise its contribution to the Patriotic Fund by a tax levied upon property. No limit is set to the rate which may be levied, this being left in the hands of the local council. Property of men enlisted for overseas service, and of men serving with the forces of the Allied countries, is exempt from such taxation. The municipal councils are thus put in position to do away with the necessity of taking up subscriptions for the Fund, and also to lighter the contributions required from liberally disposed residents. A proportionate share of the amount required may now be levied upon parties who would not voluntarily subscribe, and upon the absentee owners of property, who would not otherwise be called upon for real donations. The measure is at the same time a welcome step in the direction of removing the soldier's family from the position of dependents upon private generosity and making their support a recognized public obligation.

Reports from the Sturgeon are that both strategy and more material means are being employed here in an attempt to beat the Minister of Education. In this, as in the adjoining constituency of Beaver River, the campaign appears to be under Dominion rather than local direction, the evident idea being that if these two provincial seats went Conservative the chances of beating the Liberal nominee for East Edmonton in the Dominion election would be improved. A contingent of workers have been imported into the Sturgeon riding, and are employing the usual means to induce and coerce electors into voting against the Minister. A pamphlet issued on behalf of Mr. Sutherland, the Conservative nominee, represents him under the mis-construed term of "the farmer candidate." As is explained in the body of the pamphlet, Mr. Sutherland is in fact the nominee of the Conservative Association, and, as is further explained, was accorded this honor only because the original choice of the Association, Hon. Dr. Rutherford, declined to stand for election. He has not been endorsed by any organization of farmers, and is running as a straight party candidate. Another feature of the situation is the presence of a third candidate in the field, in the person of Mr. Michalizyn. This gentleman, it appears, was employed by the Dominion Government last summer in some capacity or other, but suddenly announced himself as a candidate for the Provincial House just after the Conservative Association had convened, selected its candidate and matured plans for the campaign. The inference was that Mr. Michalizyn was paid of the plans. He has since been holding meetings among the Ruthenian electors, who constitute about one-quarter of the voters in the riding, representing to them, it is claimed, that they should have Ruthenian schools in place of the English schools, and that the way to get them is to defeat the Minister of Education. The understanding is that after cultivating all the hostility he can toward the Minister Mr. Michalizyn will retire from the contest and recommend his friends to vote for the Conservative nominee. The vigor of the campaign that is being made against him discloses on the part of the Opposition a quite correct understanding that it is in their interests to prevent the Minister of Education spending any time addressing meetings in other parts of the Province, while the character of the campaign makes it an explanation from Mr. Michener of the relations between himself and Mr. Michalizyn's propaganda for Ruthenian schools.

How Newspapers Serve

From the Regina Daily Post:

The American Congress, considering a proposal introduced by Senator Mahan to increase very greatly the postage rates paid by the newspapers very wisely decided to strike it out. With the newspapers the business of government would suffer a great deal, and newspapers can reasonably look to the public for a great deal of giving.

The American government is now engaged in floating a "Liberty Loan." Many banks have offered and are giving their services free in taking subscriptions to this loan. This is patriotic service, but in comparison with the strenuous have made toward the success of that loan, it fades into insignificance. Without the co-operation of the newspapers it would be weeks before the public even became aware that a loan was being floated. Without the urging of the newspapers, and of the public officials, there is little chance that there could be no general or popular subscription to it.

The same thing applies to every department of the government, and not only in the United States but in Canada and all other countries. The "Progressives" and "Socialists" in this country is an example. Whereas the newspapers received a small revenue in the way of the government's advertising campaign, they gave columns upon columns of space to news editorial matter urging upon the people the importance of production on a trifling scale.

The people outside the newspaper offices really appreciate the value of the cost of white space to the publisher of it and particularly of the white space given freely and cheerfully to charitable and patriotic purposes.

Every inch of white space in a newspaper represents a certain value, which can be used to make the newspaper most interesting to the reader, or it can be sold to advertisers at a certain price.

It represents also a certain cost, and that cost is not a small item.

Giving any money to the publishers represents no gain in value to the publisher, but it does represent real value to those to whom it is given.

Newspapers give more freely to charitable and patriotic purposes than to other business institutions in the country. That should not be overlooked.

I am purely independent in my politics but a lover of fair play.

THE DOG NUISANCE

Editor of the Bulletin:

Sir—May I be allowed to express my appreciation of the attitude taken by Magistrate Barclay with regard to the dog nuisance in the city. To my mind it is putting it very mildly to say that there are three times too many dogs in the city of Edmonton. In this respect to me it resembles an Indian village which is usually overrun with dogs. There is this difference however, that the dogs which the Indians keep are of course used as hunting dogs, while most of the dogs in Edmonton instead of being useful are a very real nuisance. It is not only that they are often a menace to passers-by during the day, but they frequently bark at intervals all through the night so that it is almost impossible for a light sleeper to get a good night's rest. I live on 102nd avenue near 124th street and almost every night I am kept awake for an hour or so at a time listening to my neighbors' dogs of which there are several notable offenders between 122nd and 124th streets. Why not amend the by laws which compel owners of dogs to keep them in their houses during the night instead of leaving them free to disturb the whole neighborhood? It is surely time that something should be done and the present bylaw does not seem to cover the need.

THE ALIEN QUESTION

Editor of the Bulletin:

Sir—Reading as I have been, the discussion that has been going on over giving the right to vote to aliens the thought has struck me, is this not much akin to what occurred in South Africa when Kruger and those in power with him refused to recognize the Outlanders (or Boers) and give them the right of citizenship.

There was this difference though, that whereas the "foreigners" there had been with and settled of their own accord and were made to feel that their room was more desirable than their company, in Canada we have been holding out strong inducements to bring them here and made them loyal citizens.

I am purely independent in my politics but a lover of fair play.

Prosecutions Will be Taken Against Slackers and Those Hindering Plans

Washington, May 30.—Despite anti-conscription agitation in many cities, this department of justice officials suspect German propaganda, the department expects virtually all men between the ages of 21 and 30 inclusive to register for the war draft next Friday. To insure this, further steps were taken today looking to the prosecution of persons seeking to hinder registration plans, and to the detection of those who may avoid registering. Criminal action is likely to be taken against slackers, and the United States marshals and attorneys have instructions to watch closely for indications of anti-conscription conspiracies and to assure the protection of registrars.
